PROFILE

Emmy-winning animator and creative technologist. I design and prototype interactive experiences, bringing motion, personality and craft to products. Most recently Creative Director at an AI character startup, prototyping games and products built around autonomous characters.

EXPERIENCE

Freelance Creative Technologist, Remote

August 2026 – Present

Visual development and AI-assisted prototyping.

Designing interactive characters and motion using Rive and Claude Code.

Creative Director & Animator at Company Picnic, Remote

March 2024 – July 2026

First employee at an AI character startup. Built the Betaworks AI Camp demo that secured our initial funding.

Co-directed and designed conversation-based games with autonomous characters.

Prototyped game concepts and led design on a vertical slice.

Designed how characters react to players, translating their internal state into animation and behavior.

Rigged and animated characters driven in real time by our proprietary AI brain, which modeled emotion and memory.

Implemented characters and animation in Unity and worked with engineers to spec tools for the pipeline.

Animator & Compositor, Freelance, Remote

October 2016 – February 2024

Chromosphere Studio: animation and compositing for shorts, series, ads, apps and games, with clients including Netflix, Epic Games, Cartoon Network, Warner Bros., Discord and Airbnb.

Nickelodeon Animation: 50+ in-film UI animations for Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles: Mutant Mayhem.

Netflix Animation: storyboarded, animated and composited song videos for StoryBots.

Baobab Studios: composited the 2D version of the Annie-winning VR short Namoo and helped develop its look.

My Moon*: animation director. Set the style, animated, composited and co-ran a successful Kickstarter.

Production Artist at JibJab Bros. Studios, Los Angeles

August 2013 – November 2016

Animated personalized characters across the Emmy-winning StoryBots companion app.

Animated, storyboarded, composited and directed for the StoryBots series and interactive iPad books.

Directed remote studios and mentored interns.
